DISCUSSION OF DELTA REGIONAL PARK

Mayor Hansen stated that the purpose of the meeting was to discuss various concerns regarding the Delta Regional Park. She asked Millard County Commissioner Michael Styler to address the Council regarding the issue.

Commissioner Styler proposed that the Delta Regional Park become part of the proposed Millard County Fair facilities with Millard County providing the operation and maintenance of the Park and Delta City providing the recreation programs for the Park.

The following concerns of Millard County and of Delta City were discussed:

1. Delta City will no longer have funding for a Parks & Recreation Director as of January 1, 1988.
2. Will Millard County be obligated to provide parks and recreation programs in other Millard County communities?
3. How much would Millard County be charged for water usage at the Park? Regular water user rate or actual pumping rate?
4. Parks & Recreation Director Max Wood would have too many "bosses" if the Recreation District were to be in charge of recreation.

The following options were discussed:

1. Millard County maintain the Parks and the West Millard Recreation District maintain the Recreation programs.
2. Millard County maintain the Parks and Delta City maintain the Recreation programs.
3. Recreation District maintain the Parks and the Recreation programs but allow Millard County to continue with the Fair buildings as presented by Commissioner Styler.
4. Let the Park revert back to its previous state.

Mayor Hansen appointed Council Member Don Dafoe and Council Member Craig Greathouse to a committee to further discuss the possibilities of the Delta Regional Park with Millard County and the West Millard Recreation District.

Mayor Hansen asked if there were any further comments, questions, or items to be discussed. There being none Council member Don Dafoe MOVED to adjourn.
